TO WHOM SOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

It was my good fortune that in July 2017, I attended a "Social Media Marketing" Certificate Course conducted by Shri Jasmeet Singh, (Founder - The Sharp Brain) under the aegis of Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Government of India.

Shri Jasmeet Singh has a comprehensive and insightful understanding of marketing through Social Media. He has sharpened his skills and abilities through years of hands on experiences as an entrepreneur in this rapidly evolving domain.

He has an illustrative and participative approach to training which encourages questions and feedback. As a result he is able to resolve the individual difficulties and challenges faced by the participants. His suggestions are ethical, practical and intuitive in building business through Social Media.

Shri Jasmeet Singh is an enlightend exponent of the subject and can immensely contribute in the growth and development of Entrepreneurs and established businesses that are open to leverage the global platform of social media for reaching out to customers in innovative ways.

I wish more power to him as a crusader for net neutrality and social media awareness.
